Annual Parochial Church Meetings 2026

Annual Parochial Church Meetings (APCMs) are an important moment in the life of every parish, offering an opportunity to reflect on the past year and look ahead with shared purpose. At the APCM, church members review reports on various areas of church life, celebrating what has been achieved together while prayerfully discerning future priorities. It is also the time when key representatives, such as churchwardens and members of the Parochial Church Council (PCC), are elected. Open to all on the church electoral roll, the APCM encourages participation, transparency, and a sense of collective responsibility, ensuring that the direction of parish life is shaped by the voices and gifts of its community.
